A two week workshop designed to challenge and inspire young students ages 8-11. The program runs July 16-July 27, 2012 and offers a fun roster of classes daily from 9:00 am to 3:00pm, Quality instruction is provided in a supportive environment. Workshop students may also opt to attend a field trip to Jacob's Pillow!

Young dancers will be guided by MetroWest Ballet's outstanding faculty and guest faculty. Students will receive individual attention in a nurturing atmosphere created and dedicated to the achievement of each student.

The program concludes with an informal performance at the MetroWest Ballet studios.

The beautiful state-of the art studios of MetroWest Ballet are located in safe residential neighborhood with a park across the street and bike path adjacent to the building. The studios have a sprung floor system and are air conditioned.

Acceptance into the program is based upon completion of the application.
